LiquidAgents Healthcare Employees Help Frisco Family Services

Plano, Texas – August 2, 2011 - The employees of LiquidAgents Healthcare, an award-winning industry leader in healthcare staffing, recently wrapped up their annual school supply drive for Frisco Family Services.

Working in teams of five, LiquidAgents Healthcare's recruiters, salesmen and office support staff competed against one another to see who could bring in the most supplies. The winning team receives a free lunch, courtesy of the company.

"As a company, we're always looking for ways to give back to our community," said Jenny Hanlon, LiquidAgents' CFO. "By making our contribution an internal contest, we encourage teamwork and healthy competition. Of course, the end result is that children and families in Frisco get the supplies they need to be ready for school. When you look at it that way, we all win."

The company's challenge to their employees resulted in the donation of nearly 1500 items ranging from shampoo, toothpaste and other personal hygiene products to Crayons, pencils and scissors. All total, they were able to bring in over one thousand dollars worth of school supplies. In addition to the employee contribution, the company purchased 20 backpacks, worth a total of five hundred dollars.
