LiquidAgents Healthcare Ranks #1 on Dallas Business Journal's "Best Places to Work"

Plano, Texas – September 17, 2009 – LiquidAgents Healthcare, a healthcare staffing and comprehensive workforce procurement firm, was ranked #1 on the "Best Places To Work in Dallas-Fort Worth" list, in the Mid-Size Business category. LiquidAgents Healthcare has been ranked on the "Best Places To Work in Dallas-Fort Worth" list for the past six years. The award was accepted on behalf of LiquidAgents Healthcare by Sheldon Arora, CEO, at the Dallas Business Journal 2009 Best Places To Work Awards luncheon held September 17 at the Inter-Continental Hotel.

"We are so excited about our growth over the past year and are incredibly honored to be ranked #1 in the Mid-Size Business category for the second year," said Sheldon Arora, Chief Executive Officer. "Since the companies inceptions, we've worked hard to build a culture around the belief that attracting and retaining the most talented professionals in the business, will grant us the ability to build a world class company who can serve customers beyond their expectations."

The "Best Places To Work in Dallas-Fort Worth" Awards recognizes companies that excel in valuing employees as their greatest asset for creating business results. Companies submitted company and employee surveys in four categories. The top finalists and company rankings in each category were determined by a point scoring of responses to survey questions.
