LiquidAgents Healthcare Ranks Top 10 on Dallas Business Journal's "Best Places to Work"

Plano, Texas – September 23, 2010 – LiquidAgents Healthcare, a staffing and recruiting firm, maintained its top ten spot in the "Best Places To Work in Dallas-Fort Worth" list, posted by Dallas Business Journal. In a category of 50 companies, DBJ's "small companies" section recognized the recruiting company seven times in the past decade, all within the top ten. LiquidAgents CEO, Sheldon Arora, accepted the award at DBJ's "Best Places to Work" luncheon at the Sheraton Dallas.

"We are more than honored to be acknowledged again this year," Arora said. "Here at LiquidAgents, we work incredibly hard to make our employees happy and successful. We have built a workplace that attracts and retains gifted professionals that allow our company to thrive as well as satisfy our clients."

According to DBJ, honorees were not chosen by a panel of judges, but by the company's own employees. The ranking contest recognized businesses that excel in valuing staff as their greatest asset for creating business results. LiquidAgents' strong employee communication makes them a major competitor. This is achieved through encouraged interactions and opinions from workers. De-stressing is also essential to the company. Staff members enjoy the luxury of an espresso bar, a stocked kitchen, a ping-pong and pool table, and don't forget the yearly Vegas work trips.

"LiquidAgents has created an environment where employees can learn and grow, have a lot of fun, and make a lot of money," Arora. DBJ's rock-star themed grading categories include "why we rock," "rock star recognition" and "if I were a rock star I'd be..." LiquidAgents employs the Car's "Let the Good Times Roll" as their company song. Aside from worker appreciation, LiquidAgents sets clear goals and strives to achieve them. Employee communication gives fuel for determination, accountability and success.
